Welcome to 128 Campbell Avenue – a beautifully updated and impeccably maintained 4-bedroom, 1-bath home in the heart of Havertown. The location is unbeatable – just steps from local restaurants, shops, parks, schools, the library, athletic fields, and the YMCA.

Full of original character and thoughtful upgrades, this charming home features central air, a two-car garage with driveway (a rare find in Havertown), and an epoxy-finished basement floor.

The spacious dining room, with detailed trim and chair rail, offers the perfect setting for family meals or entertaining.

The newly updated kitchen impresses with crisp white cabinetry, quartz countertops, and a seamless connection to a bonus space ideal for a pantry or mudroom, complete with a convenient half bath. Just beyond, a bright sunroom overlooks the newly installed stone patio and lovely backyard, providing easy access to the driveway and garage.

Upstairs, you™ll find four spacious bedrooms—two carpeted (all with original hardwoods beneath)—each featuring large windows, detailed molding, and organized closets with ClosetMaid ShelfTrack systems. The full hall bath includes a bathtub/shower combination and charming original ceramic tile flooring. Additional attic storage is accessible from the second-floor landing.

The clean, well-lit basement offers epoxied flooring, natural light, and ample space for a home gym, playroom, or hobbies, plus walk-out access to the yard.

Out back, enjoy a peaceful, partially fenced yard with raised flowerbeds, mature shade trees, and plenty of privacy. The two-car garage (one side with automatic opener) provides additional storage and workspace—perfect for projects or extra equipment.
